

Dear United States District
Court Clerk,

3:10-cr-126

9-5-16

Sorry if I am bothering you but I'm just asking about the progress of my "Johnson" appeal that I sent to you 77 days ago (June 20th (Monday)). I understand if you guys are swamped by all of the "Johnson" action that is taking place but a prison lawyer in here said that I should get something notifying me of the courts documenting my Motion & Request.

I at first thought that it is probably the overwhelming number of inmates filing which has caused you all not to respond by now, but, I'm starting to worry now if I messed it up by not being good enough @ law to draft it up properly, or if I've been denied all together but not ~~given~~ been given Notice... like ~~absentia~~ cold shoulder? Can you please give me some sort of update about my motion and if I am jumping the gun and being impatient then it's cool to tell me piss off and wait like everyone else... if that's the case please ~~do~~ accept my apology.

Thank you,
